

THREE THINGS YOU NEED...

"Kentuckian"
A new newspaper with the interest of the entire community at heart. Issues of it are limited without fear or favor. You will find in this paper an up-to-date report for each member of the family. Clean, honest, straightforward—it is a paper you should not be without.

Technical World Magazine
The magazine that not only entertains in a fascinating manner, but which also instructs. The magazine for the busy business man, or for the person who wants to fill away a rainy afternoon, and is so thoroughly informed at the same time. It is profusely illustrated, tells in a simple and interesting way of the discoveries of scientists, the achievements of inventors, the feats of engineers and explorers, and the opening of every new field of human knowledge. What does London say?—I have just changed upon my first copy of TECHNICAL WORLD MAGAZINE. There isn't anything like it. I want more, and I cannot wait for these issues, so I am sending you herewith check for which please enter my subscription and send me immediately the last two years' back numbers.

A Fine Atlas
This one is far off the beaten track. This is the year to obtain a new atlas. The 1919 Census has been completed, this atlas contains 120 pages of 8 color plates brought right down to date—every page showing the results of the most recent census. All railroads are shown and color and maps of all large cities are included. There are 21 double page maps showing in detail portions of the U. S. A. Canada. Dimensions 10 1/2" x 15 1/2". Bound in still finer—Silver Leaf Title—on heavy plate paper. Sells singly for $3.00. A splendid gift.

CAUSE OF FOUNDER

Not the Result of Eating More Food Than Good for Him.

Animal Driven Hard for Long Way and Allowed to Stand Long Enough to Chill Will Show All the Characteristic Symptoms.

Most of us are apt to think that founder is always caused by the horse eating more than is good for him. I thought the same thing until a few weeks ago.

I know now that an animal hard-driven for a long way, and allowed to stand in the open air long enough to chill, has all the characteristic symptoms of a typical case of founder.

Laminitis is the name given to the disease in the hoofs, and the soreness and lameness comes from the violent inflammation that is set up in the sensitive folds of tissue that are interlaced with non-sensitive layers of the hoof says a writer in the Farm Progress. These two kinds of layers are sandwiched between each other, and when the disturbance caused by overeating in a heated condition, or from a chill when the blood is hot, sets up, it is communicated to the very sensitive tissue of the foot.

The slight swelling that takes place causes the circulation of the blood through this tissue to result in considerable fever. The lamellar tissue becomes very hot and painful.

Driving a horse very swiftly over a hard road, and allowing him to chill very quickly, is fairly certain to create some such disturbance, and when this is marked, it is a good plan to start treating the horse at once.

As soon as the horse shows signs of founder, get him into a stable and place the afflicted feet in a tub of water that is just about as hot as the animal can bear. This tends to reduce the inflammation that is already present, and will prevent any increase in the lameness.

Keep up this treatment for an hour and a half or two hours, then remove the tub and rub the feet as dry as you can. Put the horse in a warm, deeply bedded stall, and drench with a mixture of about a pint of raw linseed oil, about 30 grains of calomel and an ounce of pulverized ginger.

Follow the hot water foot bath treatment for three or four days in order to make certain that the swelling does not come back. If the animal does not respond to the treatment get a veterinary to look him over at once.

If the hot water treatment is used quickly enough and strong enough it will prevent many of the worst symptoms.

The sensitive tissue of the interior of the hoof is quite closely connected as to nature with the membrane of the intestinal tract. The sympathy between the two sets of nervous centers is very close and any disturbance in the intestinal membrane is apt to be reflected in the lamellar tissue of the foot.

GOOD PLACE FOR SEED EARS

Should Be Stored in Well Ventilated Room and Not Touch Each Other—Great Many Methods.

(By R. G. WEATHERSTONE.)

The seed corn ears should be stored at once in a dry, well-ventilated place, and in such a way that there may be free circulation of air around each ear. Do not allow one ear to touch another. If there is not sufficient air circulation the vitality of the corn is almost certain to be injured, either by molding, fermenting, growing or freezing. There are a great many methods of storing the seed corn, but in all cases the place of storing must be dry. Seed corn should never be put into boxes, barrels or sacks. Few cellars are dry enough to store seed corn in. The attic, or an empty room upstairs in the house is a good place if it is not too warm and close while the corn is still moist.

Handy Way to Save Seed Ears.

The amount of freezing seed corn will stand depends entirely upon its dryness. If thoroughly dry and surrounded by dry atmosphere it will stand very cold weather.

If you have ever found yourself compelled to plant corn that was not fit for seed, do not be caught that way again. It is too discouraging to begin the season with poor prospects of a good crop. Get your seed at ripening time when the best quality is most plentiful. Get an abundance, enough for planting again what the high-water may destroy and a supply for some farmer who may move into your community or for a neighbor who could not select his seed corn at the proper time. Save seed only from the most profitable individuals with the same care you use in propagating your animals.
